

Lancaster Catholic Senior Miles Durrett Receives HADC Scholarship

Miles Durrett

The Hempfield Area Democratic Committee has named Miles Durrett, Landisville, as the 9th annual recipient of its Paul and Jan Wright Senior Scholarship. The award, given to a graduating high school senior in the Hempfield school district, recognizes a student who, according to the committee, best represents the next generation of Democratic leaders.

Durrett is the son of Rebecca and Dominic Durrett, Landisville. He is a student at Lancaster Catholic High School and is involved in varsity tennis and cross country, and has served as a captain of both teams. He is a member of the Lancaster Catholic Student Council, National Honor Society, and Spanish National Honor Society. In addition, Durrett is an active member of the community and spends time volunteering with his church, The Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish in Lancaster. He recently won an ROTC scholarship and plans on attending The University of Pittsburgh. Following college, he plans to attend law school with the goal of becoming an attorney.

“I am honored to be recognized as the winner of this scholarship and I am proud to be able to reflect my beliefs to the like minds at the HADC,” said Durrett. “This scholarship will help me afford college, and gives me an opportunity to enhance myself and move further toward my ambitions.”

“We are thrilled to have Miles as our scholarship recipient,” said Marcy Dubroff, chair of the Youth Engagement Committee of the Hempfield Area Democrats. “He not only embodies the high ideals of the Democratic Party, but has also committed to being an active and effective citizen following his graduation. The goal of this scholarship is to foster the next generation of Democratic leaders, and we are confident Miles will contribute to not only the Democratic party, but whatever community in which he lives.”

Durrett will receive $500 to put toward college expenses. He and his parents will be recognized at an upcoming meeting of the Hempfield Area Democratic Committee.

The HADC scholarship is named for Paul and Jan Wright, two longtime, active Hempfield Area Democratic Committee members and residents of East Hempfield Township.
